

QUICK REFLECTIONS ON MATCH – FIXING

Do you think it is right that

.... children's dreams are shattered by ill meaning individuals chasing their crooked goals?

.... honest people working voluntarily in football have their game hijacked by their own colleagues?

.... some club administrators ignore advice to the detriment of their own players and supporters?

.... some club administrators chase glory totally ignoring fair play?

.... some club administrators falsely project a clean personal image?

.... serious dedicated footballers are obstructed by their own team mates?

.... crooked players are made to look like martyrs?

.... supporters are tricked?

....the general public is fooled?

.... sponsors are associated with a dubious product?

.... the very image of football is destroyed?

.... fans are being turned away from the stadium?

.... the police keep turning an eye to a high criminal activity?

.... legislators are ignoring facts and delaying action?

.... armchair critics think it is easy to control?

.... the media is at times so sensational?

.... few are ready to give a helping hand?

.... very few come up with useful information?

.... fewer still are prepared to speak up?

.... the burden is expected to be MFA's sole responsibility?

.... some people unfairly accuse MFA of doing nothing to tackle match-fixing?

.... MFA is fighting a dangerous battle on its own?
